

Class design description

Class names and attributes

What happens when a card object is created

Design ideas

1. Attributes cover the information that the challenges required
2. Added some extra attributes in each class for easier identification and authorization
3. There is no automatic relation among these classes so that it is very flexible to update any attributes from backend, which means more fine-grained permissions can be easily implemented.